WELCOME TO SSEO15!

Thank you very much for your interest in becoming an exhibitor of the ## 15th IAA Symposium on Small Satellites for Earth System Observation (SSEO15).

The 15th IAA Symposium on Small Satellites for Earth System Observation (SSEO15) offers a beneficial opportunity for scientists, engineers, and managers to share insights on current and upcoming programmes and missions. The symposium will feature discussions on innovative mission objectives as well as technological, management and programmatic aspects related to small satellites for Earth and Moon observation.

The SSEO15 is an ideal platform to showcase your latest products, capture new leads and give product demonstrations to an audience.

If you get interest to become an exhibitor or you have further questions, please feel free to contact our exclusive exhibition supporter Berlin Partner, marielies.becker@berlin-partner.de

THE EXHIBITION AREA

The technical exhibition will be an integral part of the SSEO15 and will be located at the Fasanen Passage.

This impressive open space foyer offers an attractive exhibition area. Various exhibition booth sizes are bookable. The Fasanen Passage extends over the entire length of the building of approx. 100 meters. It is bordered on the long sides by a glass front facing Fasanenstraße and by a gallery on the first floor.

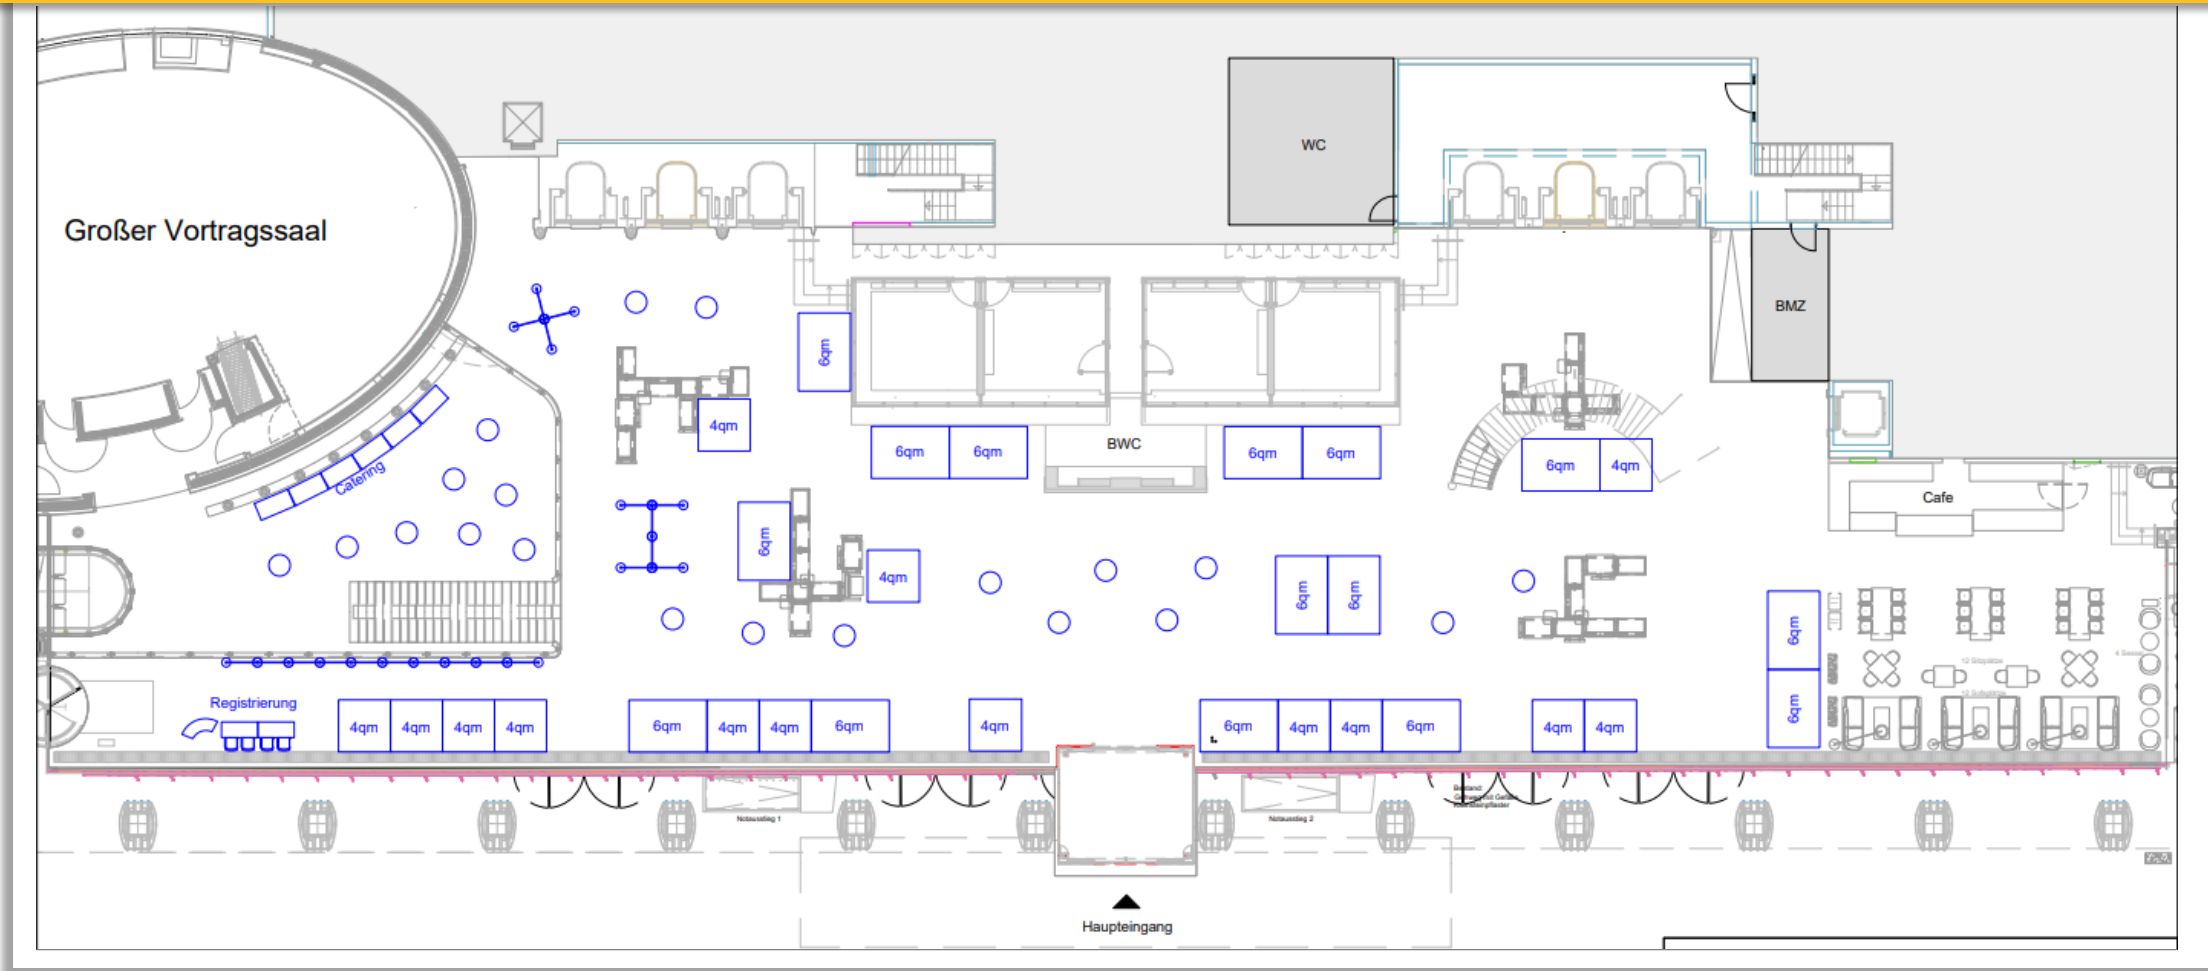

Delegates of the SSEO15 will pass by the exhibition on their way to the conference room. The poster sessions will also take place in the Fasanen Passage, which assures a high visibility to all participants and a high rate of interaction.

For information about the exhibitor areas (e.g. floorplan) and the bookable various exhibition booth sizes please, contact Ms. Becker: marielies.becker@berlin-partner.de

SSE015 FURTHER ADD-ONS

Conference Dinner

We will organize a symposium dinner in a nice located restaurant in Berlin, which will take place on Tuesday, 06 May 2025. It will be a perfect opportunity for the interested exhibitors, delegates and students to network with international colleagues. Accompanying persons are also welcome.

Please, note that this is a ticketed event - everyone who like to participate in the dinner has to register and to pay for this dinner. During the registration process, you will have the option to purchase a dinner ticket. The ticket price is 110 Euro per person and includes beverages. Registration is absolutely necessary because of the limited number of participants.
